Wolfville Baptist Church
Announcements for Sunday, Nov 8, 2026

Messy Science Day: Wednesday, Nov 11, 9am–12pm OR 1pm–4pm. Join us for a fun-filled half-day of hands-on science activities! Grades P-5, register at: http://tiny.cc/wbc_messy_science. Youth in Gr. 6+ are invited to join as helpers (register at tiny.cc/wbc_volunteer). Please register by Sunday, Nov 8. For more information, contact youth.family.wbc@gmail.com.

Card-making Class with Marilyn: A card-making class will be held Saturday, Nov 14 in the church parlour featuring Christmas cards. Join us at 2 pm and get a start on your holiday cards. Please contact Marilyn Profitt (902-300-4007) by Nov 9 if you plan to come. Fee for supplies $15.

Special S&B Meeting: Monday, Nov 16, 1pm, Parlour.

We Need Your Help! We're looking for donations for our Christmas Holly Tea & Sale. We need: baked goods (cookies, pies, sweets); preserves; pre-loved treasures for our New to You tables. Please drop off items during church office hours.

Holly Tea & Sale: Saturday, Nov 21. Two sittings: 1pm and 2:15pm. A wonderful festive tea complete with delicious sandwiches and cakes. Gluten-free option available. At the sale, enjoy baked goods, crafts, jewellry, and pre-loved treasurers. To reserve your seat call: Hazel, 902-697-2136 for the 1pm sitting; Judy, 902-542-9665 for the 2:15pm sitting. $15 per person, children under 5 free.

A Poetic Journey Through Advent with Barry Whatley: Sunday mornings, 9:15–10:15am, Nov 22–Dec 20 (no gathering Nov 29), WBC Parlour. The Advent season marks the beginning of the Christian calendar. During this time, we will take a poetic journey through the birth narratives, experiencing anew the wonder of our Lord's coming, and offer back to Him our thanks and worship! As the great poet George Herbert says, The shepherds sing and shall I silent be/My God no hymn for thee? Let's not silent be!

Newcomers' Lunch: You are invited to WBC's Newcomers' Lunch, Sunday, Nov 22, 11:30am, Lower Hall. This is a warm invitation to all people who are new to the area in the last five years. Families with children are most welcome. Come and meet others and enjoy the meal. Vegetarian option is available. There is no charge, but donations are gratefully accepted.

Honouring Fall Graduates: WBC would like to recognize those in our church family who graduated in Fall 2026. Please send full name, degree details, future plans and a graduation photo to Michael Jeffrey.

An Opportunity to Care. A couple in our church community is facing a challenging season as the wife undergoes medical treatment. We can offer practical support by providing a home-cooked meal once a week for her husband, helping to ease the demands of daily life. There are no dietary restrictions. If you would be willing to prepare a simple meal, please contact Eveline DeSchiffart at 902-698-2071 or eveline.deschiffart@acadiau.ca. Thank you for showing Christ's love through caring for one another.

Community Announcements

Port Williams has Talent! Sunday, Nov 8, 6:30pm, Port Williams United Baptist Church. There will be a wide variety of musical performances as well as dramatic skits, monologues and readings by the Port Williams Youth Group, Rev. Scott Kindred-Barnes and Laura Churchill Duke, and more. There will also be a "Time, Talents and Treasures" silent auction, with everything from catered dinners to holiday baking and mending services. Free will offering. All funds raised will go towards the capital building projects at the church. For more information, email office@pwubc.org.
