Nursery Volunteers Needed. It would be great to have 8 to 10 people to help in the church's nursery. You and a partner would be expected in the nursery by 10:15 on a Sunday morning to greet infants and preschoolers before their parents go upstairs for the service. You must have a criminal record check; the church office can help you. Please contact Nancy Robertson if you are interested.

Respectful Request: To reduce cost, time and paper waste we hope to reduce our number of bulletins and announcement inserts, BUT not at the expense of anyone's preference for tangible copies. With this in mind, please refer to the announcements in Jennifer's regular email correspondence and the projected order of service on our screens; and please consider declining a bulletin when it is offered to you. We will monitor the amount of printed material required and hopefully reduce our costs and paper footprint. Thank you so much for assisting us in being good stewards of our donations and our environment.

Confidential Prayer Chain: To request a regular prayer for yourself or someone you know, email shonwhitney@hotmail.com. Names may be omitted, if desired.

Music at Wolfville Baptist

Our mission statement for all musicians and music programs at Wolfville Baptist is the simple Psalm directive: "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness" (Psalm 100). This is our invitation to make music together regardless of age and stage, cultural and musical background, musical taste and preference, level of experience and proficiency. If you can't sing or play but would like to support our music ministry, we always need help in the music library, or providing transportation for kids, sewing costumes and building props for special productions, taking tickets at special musical events. There are many opportunities to serve the glad offerings of music.

So what, when and where do we meet?

Sanctuary Choir meets Thursday evenings at 7:00, beginning Sept 5. This weekly practice is for preparation of hymns, songs and anthems for Sunday morning services. We meet at 9:30 Sunday mornings as well, for final preparation and rehearsal. A highlight of our work is the presentation of Christmas Cantata with guest instrumentalists and musical friends.

No audition for the Sanctuary Choir is required, but reasonable commitment to practices and services is expected.

kidzQuire meets Friday afternoons, 3:30-4:15 starting Sept 13. Heather and Gisèle are teaming up again to lead the kids grades 2-8 in an array of fun warm ups, monthly service participation, and a large scale production of a musical with songs, dance, narration, costumes and sets. This Musical Sunday that takes place late spring is always a highlight for our congregation.

No audition required, but reasonable commitment to practices is expected.

Praise and Worship Team meets Thursday afternoons at 4:00 or TBA, depending the schedules of interested students and others. Students are super- scheduled in class commitments and extra curricular activities, and we want to work with you to create times when you can come together to make music that is meaningful to you as you serve in our congregation. If you play an instrument or have experience in singing in a band, please be in touch and we will help to make this happen. (text 902 698-2468 to connect)

Men's Quartet or Ensemble

You asked for it, we will deliver! One Friday a month at 5:30. Starting date TBA.

Please be in touch with me if you are interested in joining one of our musical ensembles. You can email me at soundcircles@gmail.com or check with Theresa in the office for further information (wolfvillebc@gmail.com) You can also reach Gisèle and me at kidzquire@gmail.com, if this is your interest.
