

Alpha is Coming to Wolfville This Fall

Wolfville Baptist Church will once again partner with other local churches to offer Alpha, a relaxed and welcoming opportunity to explore life, spirituality, and the Christian faith together.

Whether you have a church background, have been away from church for years, or have never considered yourself religious, Alpha is a place where your questions, thoughts, and experiences are welcome.

Each evening includes:

- Time to connect with others
- A shared meal
- A short video exploring a topic related to life and faith
- Open and honest conversation in a small-group setting

There is no pressure, no expectation, and no question is off limits.

Alpha will be held on Tuesday evenings from 6:30–8:30 p.m., beginning September 29 and continuing through December 1. Participants are also invited to attend a retreat on Friday, November 13 (evening), and Saturday, November 14 (9:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.).

As churches in the Wolfville area prepare for Alpha, we invite your prayers and support:

- Pray for the organizing team and volunteers as they prepare for Alpha this fall.
- Pray for those who may be searching for meaning, connection, hope, or a deeper sense of purpose, and for opportunities to invite them personally.

Watch for additional announcements and registration details in the coming weeks.

If you have questions about Alpha or would like to volunteer, please contact:

Mike Robertson

Rosanne McClare

Clarence DeSchiffart